

BODY WAS BURIED IN WRONG GRAVE

Second Body Arrives and Wrong One Is Dis-interred.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 15.—The mistake of J. S. Ellison, a grave digger, caused the interment in the wrong grave at Oakwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon of the body of a prominent citizen. There were two funerals at the same hour and two open graves with the same undertaker in charge. Ellison directed the first procession that arrived to the grave intended for the other. After the body had been lowered and partially covered the second body followed by a long line of carriages drove up and the mistake was discovered. The first coffin was dug up and removed while a large crowd stood around in embarrassed silence.

WASHINGTON MEN TO TOUR ORIENT

Col. H. F. Blount and B. H.
Warner Leave Soon After Christmas.

Two of Washington's most prominent business men will say goodbye to this city for several months soon after Christmas.

Col. Henry F. Blount, a well-known banker and manufacturer, will leave in January for a trip of three months to Japan and other countries of the Orient. He suffered a severe attack of pneumonia last winter and his physicians advised him to seek a warmer climate during the cold weather.

B. H. Warner, the prominent real estate man, will start in February for a similar trip. He will be gone on a pleasure jaunt for two months and a half, and will visit the Philippines and Japan.

CAUSES OF MONEY MARKET TROUBLES.

With call money ranging within a few hours from 38 to 2 per cent, it is plain that something is wrong with the monetary situation. When it becomes equally clear what ails it perhaps a remedy will be applied. In the meantime it would be interesting to know—and it is desirable to ascertain—to what extent conditions which all publicly deplore are being purposely promoted.—New York Tribune.

SPELL OF COMFORT FOR PEARY.

After all, Peary is probably glad he is to celebrate Christmas at home eating turkey instead of sitting humped up over a blubber bonfire on the ice side of the pole gnawing at a tallow candle.—Los Angeles, Cal., Herald.

TWO BLOWN TO BITS IN POWDER EXPLOSION

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Dec. 15.—Two men were blown to bits today in an explosion of a powder magazine belonging to the L. H. Vaughan Company, railroad contractors. Much damage was done in the residential section of the town.

LOOKING TOWARD HIGHER SALARIES.

There is bound to be a strong movement in Congress this winter toward the lifting of official salaries. Even wages in the outside world which are being increased do not rise proportionately with the advance in the cost of living and official salaries in the Federal service have not been increased at all, as a rule, during all the years of these boom times. It is hard for the taxpayer to think of, but it seems to be inevitable as matters are going that the public service will claim and secure more pay.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

BONFIRE IN YOUR YARD NOW A MISDEMEANOR

Because Fire Chief Belt has advised that fires built in back yards or alleys are likely to threaten the destruction of surrounding property, the District Commissioners, on Commissioner West's recommendation have approved the adoption of an amendment to the police regulations making it a misdemeanor to light bonfires either on one's own premises or in adjacent streets or alleys.

AN ILL WIND.

T. P. O'Connor, the Irish leader, began a brilliant after-dinner speech in Philadelphia in this way: "I must confess that I dread to make after-dinner speeches. At the most sumptuous dinners, even at such a dinner as this one, if I know that at the end I must make a speech, I am nervous, I have no appetite. I find little to admire in the best efforts of the chef. 'In truth, gentlemen, I can readily imagine Daniel, if he was at all of my mind, heaving a sigh of relief as the long drew near to devour him—heaving a sigh of relief and murmuring: 'Well, if there's any after-dinner speaking to be done on this occasion, at least it won't be done by me.'—Philadelphia Ledger.

WOULD FIX BLAME FOR CAR SHORTAGE

President Is Interested in Complaints From the Northwest.

Who is to blame for the car shortage on the Northwest roads, which is causing thousands of people to freeze for lack of coal and suffer for the common necessities of life? President Roosevelt talked the situation over with a number of Congressmen and expressed the hope that something would be done without delay to fix the blame and relieve the sufferers.

"Mr. Hill has given the most emphatic testimony that there is no shortage of cars along the Great Northern," said Representative Townsend of Michigan, one of the authors of the Esch-Townsend railroad rate bill, who talked with the President. "He says that there are plenty of cars, and no one is suffering for lack of them. Yet, on the other hand, we have testimony from many reliable men to the contrary. One manager of an elevator in Minneapolis, for instance, testifies that he has capacity for millions of bushels of wheat in his elevator, but that it is not a fifth full, because he cannot get cars."

NOT A BARREL ORGAN.

It had been fair to be a grand concert. One thing the chairman was anxious about was that the accompanist had not put in an appearance. The concert was delayed for fifteen minutes, but still no accompanist turned up.

The chairman, at his wits' ends, to know what to do, got up and said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I regret to say that Mr. Smyth, our accompanist, has not put in an appearance. Will it be too much to ask if any lady or gentleman would mind undertaking that responsible position?"

After a few minutes a rather burly-looking gentleman from the back of the hall, said he would mind "having a cut," whereupon the chairman, after arranging the music and things, took his place in the chair.

The new accompanist began by looking behind the piano, under the music, round the sides—in fact, everywhere. The chairman, wondering what was amiss, asked him what he was looking for; whereupon the burly-looking gentleman, looking up at the chairman in amazement, replied: "I can't find the 'anole'!"—Tit-Bits.

EMMA'S A HUMMER.

Emma Abbot DeBolt, prima donna with the Irma Opera Company, is classed with the great singers of the world. She sings with such exquisite delicacy. The almost voiceless, but tonal, tenderness of her pianissimo enraptures her audiences. Her thrills, her cadenzas, her incomparable vocalism are all so perfect that criticism falls. In its exquisite finish, its perfect enunciation and is wonderful pathos, and in the rarest felicity of tone-fulness, Miss DeBolt's singing is the most classical, the most soulful and charming and you will be delighted when you see and hear her in the title role "Adorable Fritzie" with the Irma Opera Co., which will appear at the opera house Wednesday, December 8. Seats now on sale. Prices 50c-25c-75c.—Ashland (Neb.) Journal.

MISS HALL SUCCEEDS IN SOUBRETTE ROLE

Friends of Miss May Hall, formerly of Washington, are much pleased over the news from New York city to the effect that she has "made good" in a musical comedy which has had a long and successful run. Next season, according to letters received by friends, Miss Hall will have a prominent part in a new play now being written and which will be presented by an excellent company.

Miss Hall is an attractive girl with a pleasing contralto voice, and she has risen rapidly in her chosen profession.

RATES EXCESSIVE DALLAS COMPLAINS

The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday was asked by the Dallas Freight Bureau, a mercantile association, to declare the existing rates in force between St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago and Dallas, Tex., unreasonable. The complainants state that rates on other roads carrying freight the same distance as the above lines are cheaper, and that the rate of 30 cents per hundred pounds, charged over these roads, is unreasonable, and a discrimination against the Dallas Freight Bureau.
